GLASSHOUSE

201

This versatile meeting room with a mid-century finish features informal lounge seating and a boardroom table seating six. Overlooking Warwick Street, this room is ideal for small meetings, previews, podcast recordings and intimate dinners alike.

LEXINGTON &

MARSHALL

Standing side-by side and linked via a retractable sound-proofed partition wall, these two rooms can be combined to offer seating for 16 guests in a single table layout.

Together or reserved alone, each room is the perfect space to host private conferencing, working lunches or intimate dinners.

THE LIBRARY

With luxurious sofas to sink into and a thoughtful design, the Library is a welcome retreat from the lively streets of Soho. With a fully equipped bar, the space can host up to 80 people.

Other features in the Library include discreetly integrated power sockets, a large A/V screen with sliding artwork to conceal and a set of wall mounted speakers which can be played to through a dual XLR input or Bluetooth.

SOCIAL SET UP

THE DRAWING ROOM

Next to the Library, The Drawing Room, looks out over Warwick Street, through its large bay window - accommodating up to 12 people seated or up to 20 standing, for drinks and canapés.

Retractable curtains and timber bifolding doors separate this space from the Library, allowing members the option of full privacy - making it ideal for private dining, photo shoots and cosy get-togethers.

YASMIN

Yasmin is our rooftop restaurant, bar and terrace with panoramic views. On the menu, you will find cocktails, wines and a variety of Middle Eastern dishes inspired by executive chef Tom Cenci's time in Istanbul.

The West Terrace, overlooking Warwick Street, is a semi-private space, with a retractable canopy and outside heaters. This space is perfect for a relaxed lunch or dinner for up to 20 guests or a drinks reception for up to 40 guests. The full restaurant can be hired for large celebrations.
